

Summer Seminar

At the Wilmingtonian

June 20-22

The SCTC 2004 Summer Seminar will be held at the Wilmingtonian in Wilmington, NC. This unique hotel is located in the heart of historic downtown Wilmington just two blocks from the banks of the Cape Fear River. Clark Parker has lined up some interesting speakers and some informative topics for this seminar. The entire seminar including Sunday will provide 20 hours of CPE. Speakers include Richard Cox, Mike Munden, Walt Gee, Jim Caulder, Terry Garrison and Lynn Franklin. An outline of the program is on page 2 of this publication, a registration form on page 3, and a membership application on page 4.

Continental breakfast and lunch on Monday and Tuesday for seminar registrants are included in the registration fee. After the seminar sessions on Sunday afternoon, you will have the opportunity to enjoy some time on your own. On Monday night, you will also have the opportunity to enjoy dinner on your own at one of Wilmington's many fine restaurants. More information about Wilmington and its attractions is included in the adjacent article.

A block of rooms is being held at the special rate of $129 per night. Call the Wilmingtonian today at 800-525-0909 to reserve your room. The seminar registration fee remains $175 for members and $250 for nonmembers. Sign up for the seminar today using the form on page 3. □ interesting walking tours, horse and carriage rides, historic home visits and riverboat tours. The Cape Fear Museum showcases local history, and Thalian Hall, a beautiful theater built in 1855, offers a variety of performing arts. The Wilmington Railroad Museum provides a trip back to the days when the town was a major railway center, and the Battleship North Carolina, just across the river, highlights another era.

The spacious deluxe one and two-bedroom suites are individually designed and furnished in styles ranging from country French to the warm desert colors of Arizona, with themes ranging from maritime to classic movietime.

The number of available rooms is limited, so make your reservations right away. □
